Hi Andrew,

I agree and Patty/Molly relayed the same perspective during our prep call today. We are hoping you can frame the status and process to move forward on the comments and then see if there are any specific questions anyone has regarding the comments. Instead of providing any sort of briefing of the key issues as originally planned, our view is that this approach should be sufficient given the review structure is now very different.

It was still suggested we flip the agenda to cover the topics we didn't get to at the last career leaders call. To that end, I'm hoping Dan can provide a brief overview of the 404 coordination with the Corps (1a below) to close that loop with everyone on the call regarding how we are proceeding. Matt LaCroix and Patty can fill in details regarding the 404 technical meetings.

Let me know if you have any questions/concerns. Thanks,
